

Three Weeks Lecture Series 2016

With

Rabbi Dovid Katz

July 27-Aug 10, 2016

Ner Tamid Congregation, 6209 Lincoln Ave.

8-9 pm

After 1492: Inquisition and Jews

Wed
July
27

The Terrible Fifteenth Century: The Birth of the Converso Problem and the Inquisition

*-Sponsored by Dr. Morris Friedman, in honor of my good friend Gavriel Baalness who sets the example of aneivus and generosity for all of us
-Sponsored by Dr. Zev and Dina Raden, in honor of their parents*

Sun.
July 31

The Chaos of the Sixteenth Century: The Geographical Spread of the Inquisition and the Burning of the Conversos

-Sponsored by Steve Kaplon in honor of his parents, Howard and Marsha Kaplon

Wed
Aug. 3

The Romance of the Seventeenth Century – Life after Christianity? The Converso Diaspora and its Unique Challenges

-Sponsored by Sherry and Herman Berlin, in memory of Herman's father, Alvin Berlin, Avraham ben Yisroel Yitzchok, whose 25th Yartzeit was on the 18th of Tamuz. Mr. Berlin was a founding member of Ner Tamid Congregation.

Sun.,
Aug. 7

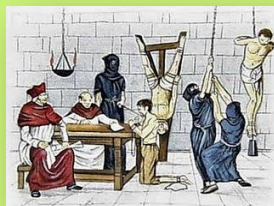

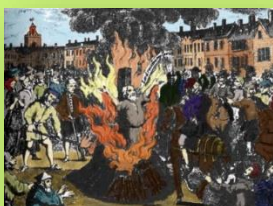

The Eighteenth Century and the New Political Correctness: The Inquisition Battles the European Enlightenment

*-Sponsored by the Schuchman and Katz families לעילוי נשמת Bubbie Sarah S. Katz
-Sponsored by Hillel and Regina Markowitz in memory of their parents, Isadore and Hannah Markowitz and Michael and Sabina Kohane, and in memory of Regina's brother, David Kohane*

Wed.,
Aug 10

The Legacy of the Inquisition in Modern Times

-Sponsored by Ben Tzion and Chana Brody in memory of Yeruchem ben Moshe and Chaim ben Moshe

Free and Open to the Public