At Congregation Beth Abraham (Hertzberg's)

The Slippery Slope: Chanukah to Tisha B'Av

The Roman-Jewish War (66-73 CE) destroyed the Jewish State and the Second Temple. The war was characterized by bloody conflict between the Romans and the Jews, and by bloodier conflict between Jews and Jews. The roots of these conflicts go back to the Maccabean Revolt. Four lectures will thoughtfully explore this tragic era in Jewish history and its sad relevance to our times.
