

The Seattle Kollel
Presents

A Special Lecture
By Rabbi David Katz

“The History of Torah Literature in Two Hours”

Sunday, June 20

Bagels 9:45 AM

10:00 AM - 12:00 PM

at the Seattle Kollel
5305 52nd Ave S, 98118

Rabbi David Katz is the serving Rabbi of Congregation Beth Abraham in Baltimore, Maryland and a popular lecturer on Jewish History and Jewish Law. He is a graduate of Ner Israel Rabbinical College and the Johns Hopkins University. He is currently a Visiting Professor at the Johns Hopkins University, Department of Near-Eastern Studies, and the University of Maryland, Department of History. In addition to his rabbinic duties, Rabbi Katz served as a contributing editor to the Artscroll Schottenstein English Translation and Commentary of the Babylonian Talmud.

For more information, contact 206-722-8289
info@seattlekollel.org

